Citi Indonesia Strengthened Alumni Network and Recognized Destry Damayanti
as Recipient of Citi Distinguished Alumni Award 2024

Jakarta, December 20, 2024 – Citibank, N.A., Indonesia (Citi Indonesia) hosted Citi Alumni Network 2024, an annual event that serves as a reunion platform for Citi Indonesia alumni.

Aside from being a networking platform, the event also provide recognitions to those who have made significant contributions to the country and the wider community through the Citi Distinguished Alumni Award. This year, the award was presented to Destry Damayanti, Senior Deputy Governor of Bank Indonesia, under the 'Leadership' category for her strategic role and contribution in advancing the country's financial sector.

Citi is known as the "university of bankers". Many of Citi Indonesia alumni hold key positions in various sectors, including government institutions, national private banks, foreign banks, as well as financial companies and other sectors. They include Robby Djohan, Gita Wirjawan, Peter Gontha, Ignasius Jonan, Tigor M. Siahaan, Lani Darmawan, Helman Sitohang, Paulus Sutisna, Taswin Zakaria, Andy Kasih, Lauren Sulistiawati, Gioshia Ralie, Ridha DM Wirakusumah, Ongki W Dana and several other prominent names.

Batara Sianturi, Chief Executive Officer of Citi Indonesia, expressed his appreciation for the dedication of alumni who continue to play an active role in advancing various sectors in the country. "The Citi Alumni Network is a testament that Citi is more than just a bank, it is also an institution that develops leaders who spearheads innovation and make significant contributions to the country, especially within the financial sector, which is integral to national development," he said.

Destry Damayanti, Senior Deputy Governor of Bank Indonesia and also as this year's recipient of the Citi Distinguished Alumni Award stated, "It is an honor for me to receive the Citi Distinguished Alumni Award. The values instilled in me during my tenure at Citi have been pivotal in shaping my professional journey. I hope this award serves as an inspiration to all of us to persist in our efforts to drive positive change and support Indonesia's economic progress."

Destry Damayanti began her career at Citi Indonesia in 1997 as an Economist. Over the years, her experience enabled her to hold various strategic roles, including as Senior Economic Adviser to the British Ambassador to Indonesia, Chief Economist at Mandiri Sekuritas, Executive Director of Mandiri Institute and Chief of the Economy Task Force for the Ministry of State of Owned Enterprises. She currently serves as the Senior Deputy Governor of Bank Indonesia, a position she has held since 2019.

Last year, the same award was presented to Jerry Ng in the Entrepreneurship & Innovation category. Other distinguished alumni who have received this award include Ignasius Jonan, Robby Djohan, Peter F. Gontha, Gita Wirjawan, Barry Lesmana, and Dr. Jusuf Arbiyanto.

Launched in 2012, Citi Alumni Network is a Citi global initiative and serves as an important platform for alumni to stay connected, network, and share professional experiences amidst the dynamic development of the industrial and financial sector.

Since then, Citi Alumni Network has significantly grown and now boasts more than 27,000 members worldwide.

In Indonesia, this event has been held since 2016, bringing together Citibankers and alumni who make significant contributions in the government, banking, and the private sector.
