Citi Indonesia Sweeps Five Awards from The Asset,
Confirming Position as Trusted Foreign Bank in Indonesia

Jakarta, February 20, 2024 – Citibank, N.A., Indonesia (Citi Indonesia) managed to sweep five awards from the annual Triple-A Awards by The Asset. This year Citi Indonesia earned the recognitions as “Digital Bank of The Year”, “Best Bank for Sustainable Finance”, “Best Bond Adviser – International”, “Best Green Bond – Geothermal Energy” and “Best Convertible Bond”.

Batara Sianturi, CEO Citi Indonesia stated, “As one of the world's leading global banks in Indonesia, our mission is to become a trusted partner to our clients by responsibly providing financial services that enable growth and economic progress. These achievements are testament to Citi Indonesia’s commitment to provide sustainable financing solutions, and innovative financial services for our clients.”

In order to deliver a seamless experience to its institutional clients, Citi Indonesia enables instant and real-time banking capabilities, including through 24/7 clearing of USD payments, instant cross-border payments into digital wallets, on-demand sweeps, 7-day sweeps and electronic trade loans.

“We have been investing, innovating, and extending our digital capabilities to become less reliant on our physical footprint. At Citi, we believe that leveraging technology and developing digital ecosystems are the key in meeting the needs of our clients,” said Yoanna Darwin, TTS Country & Corporate, Commercial & Public Sector (CCPS) Sales Head, Citi Indonesia.

In addition to focusing on innovation and digitalization, Citi Indonesia continues to implement sustainable business practices and support its clients in achieving its sustainable business agenda and development.

“We continue to actively participate in sustainable financing initiatives that are in line with the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). These initiatives range from provision of green or sustainability linked financing for the government, banks and SOEs/corporates; social financing, sustainable supply chain finance to support circular economies, to offering ESG-based trade loans that assist corporate clients in environmentally-focused endeavors,” said Anthonius Sehonamin, Head of Integrated Corporate Bank, Citi Indonesia.

Throughout 2023, Citi Indonesia has led several important sustainability-related initiatives, such as $750 million syndicated green loan to PT PLN; social finance facility of Rp650 billion and Rp150 billion to PT Permodalan Nasional Madani that aimed to impact over 200,000 micro-entrepreneurs in Indonesia, and provided sustainable Supply Chain Finance to Coca-Cola Europacific Partners Indonesia which will support both companies' sustainability agenda. These transactions are to support Citi's global commitment to achieve $1 trillion for sustainable finance by 2030.

In addition to Indonesia, Citi in Asia Pacific was also named as the Top Equity House in Asia by The Asset. Throughout 2023, Citi has executed numerous landmark transactions in the Asia Pacific region, including in Indonesia.

These include the $650 million initial public offering (IPO) for PT Trimegah Bangun Persada, Tbk. in Indonesia, among the largest IPOs in Asia in 2023; the $2 billion exchangeable bond for LG Chem, standing out as Asia's largest ever exchangeable bond; the $455 million block trade for Coupang, the largest US block trade by an Asian issuer since 2021.

The Asset is a leading financial multi-media groups, popular among Asian issuers and global institutional investors. The Asset's annual Triple-A recognition are prestigious awards for banking, finance, treasury, and the capital markets. The assessment and evaluation processes were conducted by The Asset's editorial team, using its Benchmark Surveys and follow-up interviews with the industry's Board of Directors.
